IRD RECEIVES RENEWAL FROM THE STATE OF NEW YORK FOR LONG-TERM DATA COLLECTION SERVICE AND MAINTENANCE CONTRACT

Saskatoon, SK June 18, 2003 - International Road Dynamics Inc. (IRD) announced today that the New York State Department of Transportation (NYSDOT) has renewed its long-term service and maintenance contract with IRD for a third consecutive year. The contract is valued at approximately CDN $500,000 and runs to May 2004, after which the NYSDOT will have the option to renew for a fourth year. Under this Performance Based Contract, IRD maintains a 95% or better level of operational readiness for the State's Traffic Data Collection Systems during the one-year term.

Phase II of the project, to service and maintain forty-five existing Data Collection sites, has been ongoing since contract award two years ago. This project has extended and strengthened IRD's Service Network throughout the North Eastern USA to support new installations and service existing products and systems.

Mr. Todd Westhuis, Project Manager of the New York State DOT Traffic Monitoring Unit, commented: "IRD's products and software met all of our requirements, and we look forward to working with them over the remaining Phases of this contract."

Mr. Terry Bergan, IRD's President and CEO, added: "We are pleased to be renewing our relationship with the State of New York. This contract is another example of how we are creatively leveraging our strong reputation, customer focus and patented ITS technologies to build value for our shareholders."
