IRD EXPANDS PRESENCE IN INDIA

June 29, 2005 , SASKATOON SK - International Road Dynamics Inc. (IRD) announced today that it has formed a 100% owned subsidiary company in Delhi, India, called International Road Dynamics South Asia Private Limited (IRD SA). The new company has been established to capitalize on the growing ITS opportunities presented in the region, especially India. IRD has been active in India for a number of years and the creation of the new company will enhance IRD's capacity to win and implement projects in the region, and continue the solid growth of business in the region.

Mr. Terry Bergan, IRD's President and CEO noted, "IRD has established a position of leadership in India with respect to toll collection and WIM systems. More than 300 lanes of IRD's toll systems have been installed or are under contract in India. The formation of IRD SA will enhance the opportunity for profitable growth in the region by providing our customers with cost effective systems and support, and the opportunity to provide ongoing maintenance to this installed base of equipment.

We also congratulate Mr. Aman Kishore on his appointment as Director, South Asia from his base in Delhi. Mr. Kishore has been responsible for the growth of IRD's business in the region during the past 4 years in particular since he relocated to Delhi. We wish him success in his new role and to the continued profitable growth of our business in South Asia"
